The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 15. to Tuesday September 18. 1722.

Gibraltar, Auguſt 10, O. S.

ADmiral Grave with the Squadron of Dutch Men of War he commands arrived here from the Mediterranean the 3d Inſtant: He left the Spaniſh Admiral with nine Men of War at Alicant ten Days ago, ready to ſail for the Coaſt of Algiers; where he is to remain till the End of September, to prevent the Algerines ſending Ships to join the Turks; and is then to return to Cadiz. All our Accounts from Barbary agree, that that Country is in perfect Health, and has not had any contagious Diſtemper.

Cadiz, Sept. 1, N. S. The Commerce between North and Weſt France and Spain, for Linnen, is opened under certain Reſtrictions. One Man of War of the Dutch Squadron is arrived here, with ſome Sallee Slaves on board, which are to be ſold here on Shore: The Admiral is cruiſing off the Capes. The Spaniſh Squadron is retired from Algiers to Alicant, having ſuffered much Damage in their Maſts by bad Weather.

Genoa, Sept. 8, N. S. On Friday the 4th Inſtant His Britannick Majeſty's Ship Durſley Galley commanded by Captain George Purvis, ſet Sail for Gibraltar: The ſame Day arrived here the Cornwallis Packet-Boat in five Days from Port-Mahon.

Stockholm, Aug 22. The Letters of the 17th Inſtant which came Yeſterday from Malmoe give an Account of the King and Queen of Sweden's being there, and that their Majeſties had been received both at that Place and Chriſtianſtadt, with very great Magnificence: The Burghers appeared all in Arms, and Triumphal Arches were erected at the Gates of the Town, and at ſeveral other Places where their Majeſties paſſed.

Stockholm, Aug. 29. By the Accounts which came Yeſterday from Helſingborg, dated the 24th Inſtant, we learn the Swediſh Court was then at that Place, but deſigned to ſet out for Engelholm the next Day; and on the laſt of this Month the King and Queen are expected at Gottenbourg, tho' his Majeſty having been there laſt Winter, did not intend to go thither now again; but as the Review of ſome of his Troops is appointed at Warberg, which lies a few Leagues from Gottenbourg, the Governour and Magiſtrates of that City ſent an humble Invitation to their Majeſties, who thereupon reſolved to honour them with their Royal Preſence. During the Court's Stay at Malmoe, the King of Denmark ſent the Great Marſhal of his Court, with a ſplendid Retinue, to compliment their Swediſh Majeſties on their Arrival in that Part of their Dominions; and when the Court came to Helſingborg, Lieutenant General Ranck was ſent over to Copenhagen to return the Compliments of the King and Queen of Sweden to their Daniſh Majeſties. The Weather is at preſent, and has for the laſt ten Days been moſtly fair and pretty warm, ſo that it is reckoned the Rye and Wheat is now tolerably well got in every where; which has made the Prices of moſt Grain fall to almoſt what they were when the Proſpect was faireſt for a good Crop.

Whitehall, Sept. 17.

Whereas a Letter ſubſcribed L. L. has been ſent by the Penny-Poſt to one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State; the Writer of that Letter is deſired to attend that Secretary, at his Houſe or at his Office, and he ſhall have all fitting Encouragement.

Whitehall, April 16, 1722.

This is to ſignify in His Majeſty's Name, that if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall hereafter apprehend any one or more Highwaymen, who from and after the Date hereof ſhall have robbed any of the Mails, or ſhall have been concerned as Accomplices in the robbing of any of them, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall have a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds for each Offender, who ſhall be convicted thereof